Wild West Motor Company Turns 10 Years Old

SAN DIEGO, California – April 2005 marks the 10th anniversary of Wild West Motor Company. Paul Seiter, CEO, states, “Over the past decade we have been designing and manufacturing some of the most exotic hand built motorcycles in the industry. Our commitment to excellence has been rewarded with continued growth year after year. We would like to thank our customers, dealers, vendors, and industry participants for their support in helping Wild West to become the company it is today.”
